*"A SUCCESS is one who decided to succeed — and worked.
A failure is one who decided to succeed — and wished."*

— WILLIAM ARTHUR WARD

P R E F A C E

The challenge of this and succeeding generations will undoubtedly be to find new solutions to some of the old problems that have long plagued mankind in his ever-changing world. With the hope and confidence invested in today's youth, we, at Clinton Place, are sure that the challenge will be successfully met.

For the last ten years, Clinton Place has dedicated itself to helping its youth meet the challenge of adolescence by affording them the educational tools and guidance that we hope will insure them a successful and happy beginning to the educational career of their choice. We have tried to bring to the youngster a better understanding of himself and an awareness of his responsibilities and the consequences of his actions.

As a trusted symbol in the community, Clinton Place will continue to strive to do its part in meeting the educational needs of its students.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hensley

DEDICATION

A professional attitude, charm, and unrelenting devotion to service have endeared Mrs. Hensley to all who know her. Her warm personality and unassuming manner at once captivate and inspire confidence in those placed within her charge.

As our school nurse for the past ten years, Mrs. Hensley has shown great understanding, wisdom, and patience in helping us solve our personal and health problems, for which we are grateful. We, therefore, take this opportunity to show our appreciation by dedicating this special issue of "The Explorer" to a very special person — Mrs. Elizabeth Hensley.

Her abundance of fine qualities leaves an everlasting impression of a lady — and, indeed, that she is!

ADMINISTRATION

June 21, 1967

Dear Graduates:

You have earned the first diploma to indicate the completion of the first phase of your education. The first nine years of schooling are devoted to beginning the formal training which is necessary to develop your talents and abilities. In the past three years your teachers have helped you to recognize your talents and develop them. They have helped you identify your weaknesses so that these, too, could be overcome.

In the past three years we have grown to know you as individual young men and women. We sought to inspire you to grow to be the finest kind of people it is possible for you to be.

You will begin the second phase of your education in the next school year. We hope we have taught you the importance of getting as much education as it is possible for you to get. The opportunities in your future are many, but, they all require training.

We have enjoyed working with you and extend to each of you our heartiest congratulations.

Sincerely,

Alexandra S. D'Alessandro

BE PATIENT, WATCH PROGRESS, ENJOY THE COMPLETED FACILITY

Congratulations on your latest educational achievement, your Junior High School Diploma. I say "latest" because I assume it will not be your last.

The State Highway Department puts up signs for motorists who are inconvenienced and annoyed by the building or repairing of roads. They read, "Be Patient, Watch Progress, Enjoy the Completed Facility." You must do likewise.

I urge you to stay in school at least through high school and as much longer beyond that to achieve your immediate goals. Do not become impatient to get a job — any job — just to earn some money. There aren't very many of these jobs and the pay is poor. Work hard over the next few years in school; do not become discouraged; keep in mind your goals of a better job, a better home, a better life; becoming a more complete human being.

CLASS HISTORY

This year Clinton Place continued to reflect the exuberance of youth. It was evident in dress, speech, and manner — each assuming its own youthful characteristics. Girls found self-expression in the new hemline, boys in more colorful attire. With a cautious eye toward the office, girls warily tugged at overly cropped hemlines to avoid the watchful eye of Mrs. D. The in-look was definitely dictated by the office, rather than anything dreamed-up by Parisian or London designers.

Hair styles changed also. Longer, more majestic styles were the vogue though fewer wigs were seen among Clinton Place goers. Boys too were more style-conscious, donning Afro styles which were smart, new, and fun to wear.

Dances assumed such titillating and imaginative titles as the boogaloo, the shingaling, the robot, and the skate. Music followed with such equally original titles as "A Function at the Junction," "Beep Beep," "Stand by Me," "At the Party," and many others.

Colloquial expressions continued to bombard more acceptable speech; so that such esoteric expressions as "teeny-bopper," "mini-skirt," "to get snagged," and "that's hard" were understood even by teachers.

Not so unnoticed too were the many inoculations and innovations around the school, the most painful being central detention (We wonder who thought that one up). Inflation, a national trend, was also felt around here. Games and newspapers were at a premium, but we enjoyed them nevertheless. We particularly remember and relish with Clinton Place pride our slim victory over Seventh Avenue.

Thanks again to Mrs. Young, the social calendar got off to a wonderful start. We all will remember with nostalgia and enthusiasm such enormously talented people as Nathan Clark, the Faculty Foxes — Mrs. Washington, Miss Lett, and Mrs. Young — The Soul Sisters, The Temptations, The Shandells, and especially the music supplied by the Fantastics.

Among the unresolved events of 1966-1967 was the continuation of the conflict in Vietnam. Also tragic was the unfortunate deaths of Astronauts Chaffee, Grissom and White who sacrificed their lives in an inferno of flames in an effort to advance man's efforts to reach the moon.

Although at times the ninth grade seemed hundreds of light-years away, we have finally reached graduation; thus it is with a feeling of sadness that we add these few pages to the chronicle of Clinton Place history.

When the funds are low and the doubts are high,
And you want to smile, but have to sigh,
When care is pressing you down a bit -
Rest if you must, but don't you quit.

Life is queer with its twists and turns,
As every one of us sometimes learns,
And many a fellow turns about
When he might have won had he stuck it out,
Don't give up though the pace seems slow -
You may succeed with another blow.

Often the goal is nearer than
It seems to a faint and faltering man;
Often the struggler has given up
When he might have captured the victor's cup;
And he learned too late when the night came down,
How close he was to the golden crown.

Success is failure turned inside out -
The silver tint of the clouds of doubt,
And you never can tell how close you are,
It may be near when it seems afar;
So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit, -
It's when things seem worse than you mustn't quit.
